

Gratitude Monday

Description

Iâ€™m grateful for the relaxing weekend we had at our friends lake house this past weekend. We had beautiful weather, lots of laughs, a great time swimming off their dock and boating, great food and summer refreshments. Iâ€™m grateful no one was injured other than a few scrapes, a bug bite, and sore necks and shoulders from tubing. It was the perfect summer weekend. Iâ€™m grateful I was able to wish my husband and father well on fatherâ€™s day. Not everyone can say that.
