

Morning Walk

Description

default watermark

joyfulscribblings.com

I decided to take a break from my normal routine of going to the gym this morning. I usually walk my dog in the evening because it gets pretty hot here in the summer. This morning was a pleasant 70 before we reach the 90 degree mark. On my walk I came across these positive messages some neighbor girls wrote on the sidewalk. I assume it was girls because boys don't typically write this fancy. It was a nice surprise, and I thought I'd share them. What a great start to the weekend. If we'd only get more rain, I'd happily dance in the rain.

Date Created

2012/06/22

Author

queenie

default watermark