

Good Combinations

I can't say enough about Trader Joes. They have so many unique items that you can't get from your local grocery store. My friend Anne told me about this delightful food pairing: Buffalo Wheat Thins which you can find at your local grocer and Trader Joe's Blue Cheese Roasted Pecan Dip. I'm warning you it's very addictive and the nice part is you don't have to cook anything. Pay no attention to the nutritional content and it will taste even better.
