Postman Fritz

Lady Lobster Pinky

Fritzy the Squirrel

Cowboy Fritz

Something that never ceases to make smile is dogs dressed in costumes. I love to dress up my dog Fritz for Halloween. Over the years he has obediently put up with me dressing him as a construction worker, pirate, watch dog, cowboy, policeman, postman, and squirrel. I also had to include my friend's dog Pinky. She is a character and is always ready to strut her stuff. My daughter's former soccer team was called the Lady Lobsters and Pinky dressed as their mascot on their last game along with her owner/coach. You may think it's doggy torture, but I think it's pretty harmless and fun. I hope these photos make you smile!
