

Christmas Lights

Description

Have you ever seen the synchronized fountain at the Bellagio Hotel in Las Vegas? I can't help but wonder if the same folks came up with synchronizing your Christmas lights to music. Clark Griswold would certainly be impressed. It never ceases to amaze me the things that people will dream up and the endless possibilities that exist. As cool as this is, I have a feeling I would have a massive headache if I watched it for more than five minutes. I can appreciate the time and creativity that went into creating this light display, but I think I'll stick with my white lights strung across my shrubs. However, these Christmas lights still make me smile!
