Cheesy Spinach Stuffed Shells photo eat, live, run

Italian food is probably my most favorite type of food to eat. I found this recipe for Cheesy Spinach Stuffed Shells on pinterest. I made it for my family and we all loved it. My daughter isnâ€™t a fan of spinach so I left the spinach out of part of the mixture and she enjoyed the stuffed shells as well. You can find the recipe on the blog eat, live, run. The recipe makes quite a few shells.

This Lasagna Soup recipe is another pinterest find and comes from the blog A Farm Girl Dabbles. I used Italian sausage and it was a little too spicy for my daughter. If you donâ€™t like a lot of spice I would recommend a mild sausage. I personally love the cheesy yum at the bottom of the bowl.

I hope you enjoy these recipes as much as I did. Iâ€™ve created a new board on pinterest titled Pinterest Recipes Iâ€™ve Tried and if theyâ€™re on the board it means I liked them. Iâ€™m still trying to cook my way through the hundreds of recipes Iâ€™ve collected. I tend to get a little ambitious when it comes to collecting recipes.
