CONVERSATION HEART COCOA

In case you're short on time or don't want to make cookies, I thought I'd share a few cute Valentine's day drink ideas. I found both of these ideas on Pinterest. You can find all of the details on Smart School House. To make the pink cocoa you can use white cocoa and a teeny drop of red food coloring or strawberry milk. This would also make a cute drink for a girl's birthday party.

This idea comes from A Subtle Revelry via Pinterest. I love that it's simple, but gives milk and cookies an extra dose of love. I personally love milk and cookies. For more Valentine's inspiration you can check out my board Inspire Love on Pinterest.

Last but not least one of my favorite beverages is a glass of red wine and it's good for the heart. I love Apothic Red and according to Cate at Buckley's Wine Market Cryptic is a local favorite.
