Vito Corleone

If this dog could talk heâ€™d say, â€œyou talkinâ€™ to me.â€ My friend Gina shared this picture with me of Vito. When I saw his picture on facebook it made me smile. What woman could resist his killer smile and those deep dark eyes? Her boyfriend named him Vito Corleone after the â€œGodfather.â€ I love that heâ€™s a fellow Italian. They adopted him from The Italian Greyhound Resuce. If you click on the link it will take you to their facebook page. Be forewarned, you may want to bring home a Vito for yourself. For more information on adopting an Italian Greyhound you can also check out Petfinder.

Have a great week and donâ€™t forget to smile or else Vito may come after you. From time to time I like to share things on my facebook page that arenâ€™t on my blog. If youâ€™d like to follow me on facebook as well click here.
