After shopping at Charm my friend Angela and I decided to check out a new place for lunch. We drove past a quaint brick building close to the train tracks in Martin City and saw that it was a brew pub. Neither of us like beer, but the staff at Charm said they had great food. Martin City Brewing Company™s offers small plates, sandwiches, salads, burgers and specialty mac n cheese plates.

According to our waiter, 435 South Magazine voted their burger the best in the area. I was going to go with the burger, but the fried goat cheese salad sounded good to me. Angela ordered the reuben sandwich and we both thoroughly enjoyed our meal. Shopping has a way of making me hungry. For those of you who like beer, they offer 50 different brews as well as beer on tap. Martin City Brewing Company also has an outdoor beer garden to enjoy when the weather cooperates. The atmosphere has a laid back neighborhood feel to it that makes you want to hang out and sit a spell. We both decided weâ€™d be back and invite our husbands the next time. Martin City Brewing Company is located at 500 E. 135th St., Kansas City, Missouri 64145.
