I love when magazines do splurge versus steal columns. Last summer I was looking for some pillows for my new sunroom couch. I came across some pillow covers in an assortment of colors at of all places Loweâ€™s home improvement store. They look very similar to pillow covers I had previously purchased from my favorite store Pottery Barn. The Pottery Barn pillow covers are linen and softer than the covers at Loweâ€™s. However, if you like the style and softness isnâ€™t a concern the covers at Loweâ€™s are a steal. You will need to purchase an insert for the covers, but Loweâ€™s also sells the feather pillows at a fraction of the cost you would find at Pottery Barn or other stores. Both pillow covers are 18 inches. The Pottery Barn pillow cover is currently on sale for $20 and the Allen and Roth cover at Lowe's is $7.97. If you have a splurge versus steal item you'd like to share send me an email at dawn@joyfulscribblings.com.
