

Snicker Salad

Description

default watermark

This is one of those oldie, but goodie recipes I tend to forget about. I was talking to a friend recently who said her kids always request strawberry pretzel salad every Easter. If she doesn't make it, their disappointed. I was perplexed. "Really, they ask for pretzel salad? I haven't had strawberry pretzel salad in ages." It used to be one of those staple recipes someone would inevitably bring to a potluck. I would stare at it with trepidation until someone would say, "It's really good. You should try it." It looks strange, but it tastes good like this snicker salad.

One day out of the blue, my daughter requested snicker salad. Between the two of us, we polished off most of it. Cool Whip screams summer to me and with apple season fast approaching, I thought you might like this recipe if you don't already own it. Or maybe you do and just forgot about it like me.

This snicker salad is quick and easy to mix together. I've revised this post since it's original posting because I didn't think the former picture did it justice. I also added some Health Toffee Bits to the top to give it that extra dash of deliciousness.

If you've never had strawberry pretzel salad and are curious you can visit the brown eyed baker. She shares a recipe for it. I'm thinking it just may be the next dessert salad I make.

Linking to The Sunday Showcase Party, Inspire Me Please, Tatertots & Jello, Strut Your Stuff Saturday Link Party

Snicker Salad

Recipe Type: dessert

Author: Dawn

Ingredients

- 1 cup milk
- 1 small 3.4 oz pkg instant vanilla pudding
- 1 8 oz. container Cool Whip
- 3 green apples (unpeeled), diced " I use Granny Smith
- 3 regular Snickers, diced

Instructions

1. Mix milk, pudding, and thawed Cool Whip in a large bowl.
2. Add apples and Snickers and combine.
3. Keep refrigerated.

Date Created

2013/07/30

Author

queenie