

Dog Love

Description

Fritz

Sometimes pictures can tell a much better story than words. My dog Fritz makes me smile. Iâ€™ve written about him here, here and here. Heâ€™s pretty popular. I know there are a lot of dog owners who would say their dog makes them smile too. Several readers commented last week that their dog/dogs were on their smile list. I had the opportunity to take a few photos of my friend Anneâ€™s dogs while we were at the lake last weekend. I can say without a shadow of a doubt that her dogs make her smile, even Rascal when heâ€™s naughty. The teenagers werenâ€™t too keen on having their photos taken so I decided to focus on the dogs. Truth be told, I think the dogs are easier to work with and more photogenic anyhow. I hope these photos brighten your Monday.

I apologize now to my friends with dogs who I haven't featured. It's nothing personal. If you have a cute photo of your dog and would like to submit it to me for a future smile post please email it to dawn@joyfulscribblings.com. If you have a minute check out this mug shot of Vito Corleone a past smile victim. He's sure to put a smile on your face as well.
