Description

Iâ€™m guest posting for Stacey Beth at Likes to Smile today. Iâ€™m sharing a few tips on how to keep track of travel ephemera while on vacation. Iâ€™m also showing my favorite ways to display travel memorabilia and souvenirs throughout my home. I still have lots of scrapbooks and photo albums to complete, but these are some quick ideas that can be implemented right away. I have tons of pictures to sort through and fun postcards to display after my big trip to the United Kingdom this summer with my family. Click on the link to see my little glimpse of London. I hope youâ€™ll visit Likes to Smile and see how I enjoy my travel mementos long after my summer adventures have ended.
