I'm loving all of the camouflage I've been seeing in the stores lately.

I've picked out a few of the fashion items that have caught my eye. I own the scarf and I absolutely love the clutch, belt and shoes. The dress looks comfy, but I'm not sure if I could pull it off. I like a more subtle look rather than head to toe camo, but I think it's really cute. What about you? Have you bought any camo this year that wasn't for hunting purposes?

Thank you to all the Veterans who have served our country and to those in the military currently serving.
