

Dogs and Henry Make Me Smile

Description

My son turns 18 today and watching him grow into a nice young man for the past 18 years, has made me smile every day. I could dedicate this post to him, but being that he's 18 he wouldn't think that's very cool. I'll wait until he graduates to share all of my boohooing. I've decided to write about my other son of the canine variety who also makes me smile.

If youâ€™ve been following my blog, you know I have a miniature schnauzer named Fritz. Iâ€™ve written about him here, here and here. I recently started following Lifestyle Expert, Mar Jennings. He also owns a miniature schnauzer and has a Pinterest board titled Schnauzers. Mar also shares pictures of other dog breeds, but mainly schnauzers. I stared at the schnauzer board for at least 10 minutes oohing over all of the adorable dogs. Since my son will be leaving for college this fall Iâ€™ve decided I may need to add another child in schnauzer form.

Here are a few neighbor dogs that make me smile!

Meet Nina Sophia. I had never seen a chocolate (liver) colored schnauzer before Nina Sophia. I think she and Fritz should go on a date sometime. Heâ€™s a few years older, but very distinguished, fun (he dresses up for Halloween), and very mature.

Right after I let my friend Kyra know that Nina would be on my blog, she sent me a photo of Kala Mia. She is the newest addition to their family. This is not helping my eagerness to get another schnauzer at all! Kala Mia reminds me of Fritz as a puppy.

I know a few other schnauzers that make me smile, but I didnâ€™t get their photos in time so Iâ€™ll save them for another day! I foresee a schnauzer roundup in the future.

The big dogs in the neighborhood.

Tuckerâ€™s mom Shelley sent me this photo this past summer and Iâ€™ve held on to it waiting for the right time to share it. Tucker has grown quite a bit since this photo was taken. Iâ€™m sure

Shelley is doing some reminiscing just as I am with my son today.

Gunner is our cul-de-sac neighbor and loves our house because my husband loves to give him treats. Gunner also fancies the UPS truck driver who throws him biscuits.

For those of you who love cats, I introduce you to Henry. I've never been a big cat person, but Henry makes me smile every time I see a picture of him on my friend Miki's Facebook timeline. This is one of his latest. He's a very curious cat! I'm surprised he wasn't trying to get the bird covered in glass. I also love her little kitchen table vignette, cat included.

I hope these furry creatures made you smile today! They give their owners lots of love despite the trouble they get into sometimes. My son always wanted a dog despite being terrified of them. I'm glad he let love prevail instead of his fear because Fritz has brought us so much JOY!

Date Created
2014/02/24

Author
queenie

default watermark