

Breakfast Pizza

Description

default watermark

My family loves to eat breakfast for dinner. I love it because itâ€™s an easy meal to make and often economical. As hard as Iâ€™ve tried in the past, my kids rarely eat breakfast in the morning. They just arenâ€™t hungry first thing in the morning so we rarely eat breakfast as a family unless my in-laws are in town for the weekend. The other exception is when my husband picks up Chick-fil-A chicken biscuits. Iâ€™m also not a morning person and donâ€™t care to cook that time of day. However, I do like casseroles I can assemble the night before and just pop in the oven.

This breakfast pizza recipe is easy to assemble and makes a hearty meal. You can pair it with some fruit or a smoothie for a complete and budget friendly meal. This recipe is part of a budget friendly family meal recipe exchange Iâ€™m participating in. For lots of other budget friendly meal ideas check out the links provided.

Breakfast Pizza

Recipe Type: breakfast or dinner

Author: Dawn at Joyfulscribblings.com

Ingredients

- 1 lb. sausage
- 1 pkg Pillsbury crescent rolls
- 1 c frozen hash browns, thawed (I used the shredded)
- 1 c sharp cheddar cheese
- 6 eggs
- 1/4 c milk

Instructions

1. Cook sausage and drain.
2. Separate rolls and press into ungreased 9Ã—13 pan. Press together and up sides.
3. Spoon sausage over crust.

4. Sprinkle on potatoes and top with cheddar cheese.
5. Beat eggs and milk and pour on top.
6. Bake at 375 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes uncovered.
