As I mentioned on Monday, I'm on a little break this week. Recipes are some of my more popular posts due to Pinterest so I thought I'd recap some of the recipes people have told me they made and loved. You might find one or two you missed or it might be an opportunity to give one a try this week. Most of the recipes I make are very easy. I don't love to spend a lot of time in the kitchen cooking and cleaning. My favorite part is the eating!

If youâ€™ve enjoyed any of these recipes please leave a comment or consider sharing them on Facebook or Pinterest. Any comments or shares are greatly appreciated. Thanks for all of your past comments and shares the past three years. Next week Iâ€™ll have a brand new salmon recipe which is easy and delicious. To search other past recipes simply highlight the word recipes in my menu bar and youâ€™ll find them sorted by categories.
