Do you know what you want out of life? Sometimes I think I do and then I get it and itâ€™s not exactly how I pictured it. I think we have to know what we want in order to take the baby steps to get there. Sometimes for me itâ€™s not only a matter of asking myself what I want, but how do I want to feel.

This spring has been busy for me with lots of home projects taking place. Iâ€™ve had to make decisions on what I want to keep and what I need purge. I love lots of stuff, but I want a little less clutter in my life. I start to feel weighed down by a lot of things. I also want to be inspired and lately all of my decision-making about stuff has left me somewhat uninspired.
